Controversy Between Pool and Grain Dealers

WINNIPEG, Man.—The Financial Times says that the great western pools have failed to benefit their members in the way of getting larger returns for their grain; in the contention of the Northwest Grain Dealers Association here, following the official report of the Pool's Central Selling Agency to the effect that the total payment for the 1925-1926 wheat crop would be $1.45.

In a statement issued here the association declares that, the final payment the Pool is able to make, Basic Pool William is eight cents to nine cents a bushel under the average open market price.

At its annual meeting the Central Selling Agency announced that a final payment of 5 cents a bushel would be made on last year's crop, bringing the total payment up to $1.45. The final payment was one dollar a bushel, after which two interim payments of twenty cents apiece were made.

Following the Pool's statement the Northern Grain Dealers' Association came through with their own view of the situation. All of the $1,500,000 set aside to make the final five cent payment will not find its way into the pocket of the farmer. Its statement declared, as certain deductions would have to be made. The Manitoba pool it was pointed out, had already announced that only three cents per bushel, basic 12 Port William, would be paid, the balance required for operating expenses and elevator reserve for each purpose.

The Saskatchewan pool would require three cents a bushel, the proceeds on this basis being $1.45 as against the average open market price of $1.51.

Controversy Over Prices
The Grain Dealers point out that the pool in their various prices for grain have emphasized that they would make large profits in the exporting of their grain, while in addition big returns would be effected in the sale and export of freight. Despite the fact that the farmers were promised all of the profits from handling of the grain from the producer to the consumer, the dealers contend that the Pool's payment is in reality from eight to nine cents less than the average price on the open market.

The Pool, however, have pointed out that the average price quoted by the grain dealers is simply the average price quoted by the grain dealers is simply the average of the daily wheat closing prices. It means nothing, they declare, unless the number of bushels marketed each day is also considered.

The controversy between the grain trade and those who represent the pool movement has been so sustained with unimpaired vigor this year. Last year the pool published figures purporting to show that the pool farmers had not fared as well as the marketing of his grain, as his neighbor who traded in the open. Each year's business brings its own question in this respect, but the question will never be settled by argument.

that had they not been in existence the marketing of the western crops would have been much less orderly, and the average price consequently depressed. On the other hand, the pools have been accused by the trade of depressing prices by making heavy sales on bulges.

The western paper has pointed out that the pools at least must be given credit for removing one of the chief grievances of the western farmers. The feeling that the dice were loaded against them in the marketing of their product has been dispelled with the result that more contentment is in evidence in the rural areas. The psychological reaction, it declares, has been an important one.

STANDARD

The Standard Western's feature here the Annual Bazaar and sale of home cooking on Friday afternoon, October 20th, in the S. & S. Hall. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with black and yellow streamers, black, witches, and owls, and pumpkin Jack-o-lanterns. Scattered about the hall were small tables, where delicious afternoon tea and coffee were served.

Mrs. Milne was in charge of a well filled fancy work booth. Many and dainty were the articles for sale, and many ladies were wise enough to begin their Christmas shopping at that booth. Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Collins managed the home cooking table, where pies, cakes, home-made bread, preserves, etc., were appealing enough to make anyone part with their spare nickels and dimes. In the evening a grand masquerade dance was held in the hall. Those who attended the dance to see the costumes were well rewarded, as they watched a seemingly endless procession of fairies, Indians, gnomes, tramps, Chimeras, clown, old fashioned ladies, gnomes, pirates, flowers, harem girls, Gypsies, etc.

The judges were faced with a very difficult task when the grand march was called about eleven o'clock. The following were the prize winners of the evening: Most original costume, Miss Edwards as a Japanese Girl; Mr. Weberg as John Bull, Best costume, Mrs. Bushman as Indian Squaw, Mrs. Roach as a Trump. After the judges had reached their decision, the beautiful bedspread was drawn for, and Mrs. T. Turquoise was the lucky winner with ticket number 191. A sumptuous supper was served at midnight, after which dancing was resumed until about three o'clock.

Mrs. and Mrs. Christensen and family, of Carpio, North Dakota, arrived on Saturday with a carload of new furniture, and will settle on the Two Dot Ranch, north-east of Stand Hill.

Mrs. and Mrs. Owen Craig and Mr. and Mrs. Dyce Allen, of Vulcan, were guests at the Knowlton home on Sunday.

ESSAY COMPETITION

This being the last week of the competition, the competitors are getting a start on, judging by the way the compositions are being received. The judges, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Walker and the Rev. T. H. Smith, will have a task in giving their decision, as there is a wonderful mass of the subject shown and no little literary art employed. Every effort will be made to have the results made known on November 11th, and the winning essays published. The medal to the high school student will be presented at the Armistice Ball in the Memorial Hall.

The Dana School teachers, the Misses M. Peden and N. Fair, and Mrs. J. P. Gorrill are attending the Teacher's Convention in Calgary this week. Miss Cordie Peden and Miss Edwards also left on Wednesday to attend the convention.

Mrs. D. E. McLean and daughters, Helen and Dorothy, left on Tuesday

CATHOLIC BISHOP INSISTS UPON CANADIAN MATERIALS

LONDON, Ont.—Recently a new seminary for the education of young men for the priesthood was dedicated at London, Ont., by Bishop M. F. Fallon, and in an address to the Romanians of London, who were guests of the Bishop at luncheon at the hotel, His Lordship declared that the building, the fulfillment of his hopes and dreams of many years, was down to the minute details, Canadian.

He told of his successful search for suitable Canadian stone, and of his joy in finding also that in this province there was woodcarving as exquisite as that of older lands. His quest for electric fixtures of Gothic design took him at first across the line, but finally in Ontario he found exactly what he sought. And so with every bit of material down to the smallest detail—"It was Canadian through and through," a monument of the national sources and craftsmanship of this noble land.

The bishop remarked that the character of an age and a people is determined by the character of the buildings erected. One could read pages and pages of history, but that is rather dangerous, because the real history that is a conspiracy against truth, as each writer colors it with his views and ideals. But buildings did not lie. Concrete put its mark on architecture and expressed itself in great elevators, bridges and factories. Religious faith had been a sacredness and in those marvelously contrived things which man today could not improve upon, but only imitate. He showed his zeal for education, but beyond all culture and learning was the cross and the triumph of story and Christ's life and death.

"And when all is told and when all is said and done we've got to cling to the Cross. We must emphasize the triumph of the Cross. All Christians should recognize it. I like to see commercial and industrial success, but I also like to see Christian genius, men adhere to the church. Don't get away from the Cross—and don't let it get away from you," concluded the bishop.

KEOMA

The community have had a great loss in the death of an old and respected resident, Mr. D. W. Powers, the deceased was one of the oldest residents in this district. He was one time secretary-treasurer of the Keoma Municipal council, also secretary-treasurer of the Keoma S. D. The sympathy of the whole community is extended to his widow and family.

Mrs. Sydney Thorpe and her little daughter, of Calgary, was a visitor to her sister, Mrs. Robert McKay.

The school is about completed in this district.

A very successful masquerade dance was held in the Keoma hall last Thursday, the proceeds are to pay on the debt on the clinic, which was the gift of the Dramatic Society and Glee Club to the Community Hall.

Remember, November 8, when a Thanksgiving Dance will be held here, if you want a good time.

For Loamen, Alta., where they will visit for some time.

We are glad to report that threshing in this district is finished, and the grain is pouring into the elevators here every day. The big rush for 1926 is over, and people are settling down for the winter.

Mrs. and Mrs. Milton Brown, of Weyburn, Sask., called on the Misses Peden here last week. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were enroute through to Vancouver.

IN FLANDERS' FIELDS

In Flanders' fields, the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing,
Scarcely heard amid the guns below.
We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders' fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe,
To you, from falling hands, we throw
The torch. Be yours to lift it high,
If ye break faith with us who die.
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders' fields.

SUCCESSFUL MASQUERADE DANCE BY TENNIS CLUB

The masquerade dance, under the auspices of the Tennis Club last Friday night, was a decided success. The attendance was large, the music by Froyer's orchestra was very satisfactory, and the costumes, supplied to quite an extent by Gately and Fisher, were very pleasing, and due to the funds of the Tennis Club were considerably augmented. In addition to providing a fine night's entertainment.

The decorations at the Memorial Hall were very appropriate and represented no end of work by the members of the Tennis Club. The prize winners were as follows: Best original costume, Mrs. Moran and Mr. H. Berry, as Pumpkins; Best original comic costume, Mr. Mackenzie, as a Jew; Best dressed lady, Mrs. G. Hughes, as a Turkish slave; Best dressed gentleman, Mr. N. Heeb, as an Alabama Slave.

DALEMEAD

Mr. and Mrs. Behen and family from Namaka, were visitors in Dalemead last week.

Miss R. Rennie and Miss Beattie attended to Haskell over the week end, where they visited with friends.

The vote on the school debentures, last Saturday, resulted in a vote of 55 to 27 against. The school will go marching on.

This weeks funnybone tickled. The other day at school Miss Beattie asked Johnnie to give his memorandum from Ulysses. John got up bravely, and began—"How dull it is to pause —". But not so further.

Leora Fortney has gone back to the school of Agriculture at Clearbrook.

Mrs. R. Newton was taken to the Holy Cross Hospital last week, where she is very ill. We all hope that she will soon recover.

Mrs. C. H. Taylor returned to Morley, Illinois, after visiting with friends in the community for several weeks.

Must Pay the Penalty for Hallowe'en Prank

Tuesday evening a regular meeting of the Town Council, Mayor Bell presiding, and all the members present. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed.

Deputy Mayor Schulte reported on a conference held with Engineer Jackson and Mr. Ross in regard to fixing up a portion of the Calgary Highway and expects to have information in regard to the actual requirements, together with cost of same for the next meeting.

The matter of the lease with the curling club, was again discussed, and the question of ownership of the building on the town lots, settled to the satisfaction of the members of the Council. It was decided that so long as the taxes are regularly paid, there will be no question of ownership to be settled.

The new motor for the Fire Department has arrived, and the Ralston Machine Shop have been instructed to fix the pump. Arrangements have been agreed upon to remove building to protect pump and motor to the site on Railway Avenue at the intake.

The question of the damage that had been done to property on Hallowe'en night was brought before the Council through a communication from P. J. Dunn and also in an address to the council by Mr. Dunn, who spoke of the wanton destruction of property for which he asked that repairs be made by the council at the expense of the town.

Some of the councillors were in favor, while others felt that those responsible should be ferreted out and made to stand the expense themselves or through their parents, if minors.

It was decided to lay information and proceed to have those guilty brought before the local magistrate to deal with the situation.

It was quite the unanimous feeling of the council that damaging the ratepayers property must cease, and that the only way to do so, was through the courts.

Auditor Cope reported upon the third quarterly audit, which has just been completed, in which he found all funds properly taken care of, and audited vouchers for all expenditures made through the secretary-treasurer, T. M. Wears.

The ladies of the Anglican Church requested permission to hold a bazaar on December 14th, and were asked to get the required permission from the Department of the Attorney General.

The convention of municipalities will be held in Edmonton on December 1st and 2nd. The matter of sending a delegate was held over until the next meeting. In the meantime the regular membership fee will be forwarded.

Reginald 114, was read and passed in the matter of controlling hawkers and peddlers.

R. W. Gardiner presented an application for a building permit for a family named Hils, amounting to $825, which was ordered to be paid.

Mr. John Taylor was present and asked that the council arrange matters in dispute between him and William Tierney, in regard to a portion of land which he claims is his property, and the Tierney occupies.

The councillors claim that the proper course for Mr. Taylor is to take legal action to have Mr. Tierney move the Tierney Block over on his own land.

This view did not meet with the approval of Mr. Taylor, who claims that the majority of the council to act in the matter.

R. W. Gardiner complained about the council in his speech, but the councillors were adamant, and would not give up a nickle.

expenditure of about $16, the mayor almost told the worthy chairman of public works that he did not know the first little bit about the value of lumber. Further calculations by Mr. Bailey reduced the cost by 50%, but it did not help Mr. Gardiner one iota. The councillors were quite unanimous as to what Mr. Gardiner was a wealthy citizen, he did not require any financial aid.

P. J. Dunn informally announced to the council that he was working over time with the Canadian Underwriters, with the object of getting a change in the insurance policy of Strathmore from the 2nd class, which would make a material saving for the ratepayers.

RAILWAY CONTRACT FOR 14,000 BARRELS MONTANA OIL

CALGARY, Alta.—Many people express doubt in regard to what will be done with all the oil that promises to be produced in the Turner Valley, if all the wells now being drilled, become producers.

The following story from Montana shows one of the possible outlets. There are many more.

A contract for the purchase of 140,000 barrels of fuel oil from the Keweenaw field at a cost of more than $180,000 was awarded at St. Paul the other day to the California Petroleum company by the Great Northern railway according to an announcement made in the Minnesota city by F. A. Bushnell, purchasing agent of the railway company.

Biggest Fuel Oil Deal
The deal involved the largest fuel oil purchase ever made by the western transcontinental railroad and is the largest single transaction of the kind ever made involving Montana fuel oil, officials of the Great Northern said at St. Paul after the transaction had been completed.

The contract calls for delivery of 140,000 barrels of oil over a period of four years. The Great Northern expects to consume about 120,000 annually.

"At this rate, the Great Northern will spend about $12,000 daily for four years in Montana for its fuel oil," Mr. Bushnell said. "The oil will be used on locomotives running from Williston, N.D., to the Pacific coast. This is the longest stretch of railroad in the world using fuel oil exclusively. The Great Northern recently extended the service of its oil burning locomotives from Havre to Williston."

The announcement made at St. Paul stated that because of the availability of oil in Montana and its comparative cheapness of production in that form, fuel oil has been found more economical from an operating standpoint than coal.

Closure of the contract between the Great Northern and the California Petroleum was regarded by oil operators in Great Falls as a deal that will have far-reaching effect on the Keweenaw field. It was declared to be assurance of a permanent outlet of the fuel oil residue from the field's production, and consequently a guarantee against congestion of the fuel oil storage.

HEARD ON THE STREET

Last week Harry Groves needed a cook, so came into town looking for the services of an efficient and capable chef. Some person carried the news to "Bill" Wilkinson, whose military training urged him to always be ready to volunteer for any work that saved of danger.

Harry accepted his services, and Percy British and Fred Kingston are now wondering where Bill expects to get his own meals, and whether Harry Groves is liable for any damage that may happen to the crew, for whom Wilkinson is cooking.

They were looking for Constable Tate in order to look up the law in such cases.

Jim Martin claims he once had a bird dog that was really noteworthy. He never failed on a point. One day he had him out for exercise in the park, when suddenly he noticed, right in a stone. There was no possibility of game. The grass was close clipped. The dog had his nose straight on a man seated on a bench. I thought that the man might have a live bird in his pocket, but no, the man was in his shirt sleeves. Then I had an idea. "Pardon me, sir," I said, "but would you mind telling me your name?"

"No, I don't mind," he replied, "it's Partridge."

The following has been suggested for a story in connection with a wedding. The groom was faultlessly appareled in a blue serge suit with trousers and vest to match, a starched shirt with pleated bosom and a striped red and blue tie, while his only ornaments were plain gold cuff buttons and a gold watch chain with a charm. Under his right arm he carried a natty straw hat of the latest style and wore with a martie blue hat band. He was clean shaven and recently trimmed, while his features reflected deep thought. His feet were clad in well-polished Slater shoes, while just merely showed black silk Hosiery. A solitary caratation from spray back-groomed bent the finishing touch to the correctness of the groom's ensemble.

"There's a fly in that milk pitcher," said the fussy Mrs. Blank.

"Never mind," replied Willie Woo, "serve him right—just let him drown."

Calgary reporter: "What shall I say about the two peroxide blondes who made such a fuss at the football game?"

Editor: "Why, says the bleachers went wild."

"That'll be all from you, old girl," said Harold Smith as he finished milking Grandma's Holstein cow.

Every inducement: For Rent—Furnished room, kitchenette, lady; gas, light, water paid. Low rent—ask in a California paper.

An excited man rushed out of a Winnipeg bank, "bandits! a hold-up! Police!" he shouted—not not a single policeman was in sight.

A pedestrian ran north to find a policeman.

A messenger boy on a bicycle dashed south to find a policeman.

A driver of a delivery truck sped east to find a policeman.

A lady in a Black went west to find a policeman.

A man in a Ford muttered, "Frank! I'll get half-a-dozen policemen!"—and he parked his car beside a hydrant.

As if by magic six policemen appeared.

Teacher: "Frank, what are the two senders?"

Frank: "Masculine and feminine. The masculine are divided into temperate and intemperate, and the feminine into frigid and torrid."

Bill Wilkinson was reading in an Old Country paper from his home town, where a bishop and a non-conformist clergyman took part together in some special services, which Bill claims is positive proof that if a man's heart is in the right place, it doesn't matter to which sex he belongs.

A little Strathmore girl was asked by a guest at the King Edward Hotel which member of the family she liked best. "Mother," said the child. "Who next?" "Little brother." "Who next?" "Auntie." The boniface, who was sitting in a corner of the room, spoke up, saying: "Well, my dear, when do I come in?" At a c'clock in the morning, was the prompt reply.

Customer: "When I put the coat on for the first time and buttoned it up, I burst the seam down the back."

Bill Tierney: "Yes, that will show you how well our buttons are sewn on."

A coy little girl went to Calgary. And she said, "No Ma, I didn't see Smully." I'm Smully, and I know that she lied.

In a remote village in England, a new letterbox had been put up. This enraged much comment among the village children who gathered round to discuss what it could be.

"I think it belongs to the doctor or the squire," said Billy Jones.

"Can't yer see it's by the church, so it must belong to the rector?" remarked another lad.

"Get out!" said another lad, the smartest one of the crowd, "it ain't the rector's—read what it says on it, 'No collection on Sundays.'"

The mistress of the house was interviewing a woman, who had answered an advertisement for a maid-of-all-work. The former minimized the work. "It's really very light," she explained.

Up spoke the six-year-old daughter, who had been listening attentively. "You don't say that, mamma, when you are doing it," she said.

Bill Tierney: "And when may I hope for payment, sir?"

Customer: "Always, my dear fellow."

"Tommy," said his mother, "grandmother is very ill. Can't you go in and cheer her up?"

"Yes'm," said Tommy, as he went into the sick room. But in a few moments he came out disconsolate.

"Couldn't, mother," he said. "She seemed to get worse."

"What did you say, dear?" asked mother.

"Why, asked her if she would like soldiers at her funeral."

A Scotsman and a Jew were playing a golf match. Each had one hundred dollars in seventeen holes had been played. On the eighteenth the Hebrew had a paralytic stroke and the Scot made him count it!

Father had taken little Erbert to the concert party on the pier, and Erbert was spelling out the programme.

"What is a monologue, daddy?" he asked.

"Here it is an entertainment," replied father, "but at home it is a conversation between your mother and myself."

"Am I the only girl you ever loved?" she demanded.

"Nonsense," blurted out Truthful Bobbie, "but—"

"Then yamoose," she said, "if you know the course and that's your top form, I'm not playing!"

"And, brethren," said the coloured revivalist, "after Can had killed his brother, and he went into a lot and there married a wife—"

"But," interrupted a skeptic, "if there was only him and Adam and Eve how could Cain get married?"

"Throw him out," said the preacher, "a man like that would ruin any theology!"

An Aberdonian, taken suddenly ill with an attack of lumbago, was advised by a friend to rub his back with whisky. He had no whisky, so his friend volunteered to get a bottle for him. After rubbing the patient's back with the whisky the friend departed, taking the bottle with him. Next morning the Aberdonian was found by his suffering from a sprained neck.

Four men were playing golf when one of them lost his ball. They searched for a long time, and so it was getting dark and they were tired, one of them dropped a ball and called out: "Here it is, Sandy!"

Sandy picked up the ball and examined it, then remarked as he slipped it into his pocket: "It's not my 'ba', but I was needin' 'ba's oop' way."

Then he went on with the search.

Husband: "Don't make any more of those biscuits, dear."

Better Half: "Why not?"

Husband: "You're too light for such heavy work."

The following is an excerpt from the will of a man, which has been printed recently in the courts:

"To my wife, I leave her lover and the knowledge that I wasn't the fool she thought I was."

"To my son, I leave the pleasure of earning a living. For thirty-five years he thought that the pleasure was all mine. He was mistaken."

"To my daughter, I leave $100,000. She will need it. The only good piece of business her husband ever did was to marry her."

"To my valet, I leave the clothes that he has been stealing from me."

W. M. DAVIDSON
HAS SOLD
CALGARY ALBERTAN

To the public, a change of ownership of a daily newspaper always develops considerable interest.

From coast to coast during the past few years, there have been many sales, reorganizations and amalgamations, none of which created more surprise than the announcement that Mr. W. M. Davidson had disposed of his controlling interest in the Calgary Albertan to Mr. Chas. E. Campbell and Mr. George Bell of the Edmonton Bulletin. Mr. Davidson was one of the original founders of the Albertan in 1902, when Calgary had a population of about 2,500, and he is the only survivor of the pioneers in the morning field in the Province of Alberta.

Possibly no other publisher in Canada so briefly and persistently faced the difficulties of advocating the policies, which he believed, were for the best interests of the community, without the slightest thought in regard to how it would affect the box office revenue.

In addition to his independent character, Mr. Davidson has always been recognized as one of the most brilliant editorial writers in Canada, not only by his friends, but also by those whom he opposed most vigorously.

Thus, Mr. Davidson may now enjoy a well-earned holiday in the wish of a host of his personal friends, with the further hope that he may then return to the journalistic arena in some capacity, less strenuous than the daily grind of producing a morning paper.

To his successors, the Standard extends a welcome to the Calgary Alberta field, with best wishes for a successful business, which should follow under the direction of such an experienced publisher as Mr. Campbell, who made a success of the Vancouver World, Vancouver Star, and recently put the Edmonton Bulletin on the highway to success.

DIAMOND JUBILEE CELEBRATION HAS MADE A HIT

That opportunities exist in the smaller towns, to do something worthwhile in national development is well exemplified in the Diamond Jubilee Celebration, which has been proposed for celebrating the sixtieth anniversary of confederation next Dominion Day.

The proposal for an adequate celebration, originated in the town of Orillia, Ontario, in an address to the Kiwanis Club, and the secretary, Mr. T. G. King, has received hundreds of favorable replies from all parts of Canada.

The following has been suggested as a basis for a programme:

1. A children's picnic in every community on the Dominion Day Saturday.

2. Ten thousand beacons fired to be in every city, town and village across Canada on the evening of Dominion Day.

3. A great national banquet at Ottawa, at which as many as possible of our public men should be gathered together.

4. Services of rededication and consecration on Sunday, July 2nd.

5. And, to cap all, and lend dignity and distinction to the celebration, that an invitation be sent to King George and Queen Mary to grace the occasion with their presence.

Public men from one end of the Dominion to the other, have expressed their approval; among these was Sir Hugh John Macdonald, son of the old chief, Sir John A. Macdonald, one of the fathers of confederation, who in his reply, states:

"I think the three main features you have outlined are just what they should be."

The municipal councils and school boards are endorsing the suggestion most enthusiastically, while the college principals are equally sympathetic.

For some unknown reason the least responsive have been the church leaders. In regard to the service of consecration on July 2nd, those engaged in developing the celebration are hoping that the churches will later fall in line and assist.

The local work is being organized in each community by some of the clubs in each community, and presents an opportunity for Strathmore Elks to fall in line and put over a real Canadian celebration. The Elks have the material within their ranks to make it a real success, well worthy of the name Canadian.

SAVE THE CHILDREN FROM DIPHTHERIA ATTACKS

Persons of all ages are said to be subject to diphtheria, but it is recognized prominently as a children's disease, especially the younger ones from one to six years of age.

With the advent of the month of November, possibly the most dangerous month of the year, has been reached.

During November, December and January diphtheria takes its heaviest toll of health and life, and especially so in the northern climates.

Three lines of attack have been suggested.

First—Protection against exposure to the germs.

Second—Susceptible persons may be immunized by Toxoid, so that they will not contract the disease.

Third—The curative treatment, mainly by the administration of antitoxin.

Consult your local physician, who will give you the information and assistance to protect your own little ones, together with the children of the community, whose parents neglect this very important duty.

SUMMER FISH CATCH GOOD

The summer fish catch on Lesser Slave Lake, was good according to R. T. Rodd, Dominion fisheries inspector at Edmonton, who stated that more than 650,000 pounds of white fish were taken out of the lake, with 468,711 pounds of pickerel, 210,162 pounds of pike, and smaller quantities of other fish.

FEW HOUSE RATS FOUND IN ALBERTA

—O—

The sneaking, skulking, pestiferous house rat that worries the householder and actually destroys goods valued at millions of dollars in other parts of the country is strangely conspicuous by his absence in Alberta. There are various kinds of mice in the province, but the disease-carrying destructive pest that stands supreme among the four-legged enemies of mankind is almost as scarce in Sunny Alberta as is the cotton boll weevil. No explanation is offered of this strange phenomenon. Whether there are natural enemies of the house rat which hold the pest in check or whether there are other natural causes which are inimical to the welfare of this rodent, is not known.

::LOCAL NOTINGS::

Dr. Simmonds, who traveled to leave Strathmore to live in Calgary, finds he cannot rest contented, hence is returning to devote his whole time to the practicing of his dental profession. This is very pleasing news to his many patients. Dr. Simmonds intends to have his office fitted with electrical equipment and brought up-to-date. This is just one more example of the benefits of having secured electrical energy.

On Sunday, Mrs. Fred Schuman's infant was taken to Calgary to be baptized by the Rev. Mr. Lake, of the Mount Calvary Lutheran Church. The sponsors were Miss Mabel A. Kautz, of Dalmaden, and Edwin A. Schmidt, of Strathmore.

Arrangements are being made to hold the annual Memorial Service on Sunday, November 14th, at 7:30 p.m. The Canadian Legion have in view a Christmas Tree for the children this year. Details of which are now being considered.

R. Patterson was out on a hunting trip a few days ago, and returned with a beautiful display of Greenacres and partridges. Whether "fat" can stand this high living without developing chronic indigestion is a question that has been worrying his friends.

Leonard Nesbitt, publisher of the Bassano Mail, has been appointed by the Alberta Wheat Pool to take charge of the Publicity Branch of the Educational Department, with headquarters at Calgary. Mr. Nesbitt's friends are glad to see him and so far removed from juggling with the payroll of a printing office, and at the same time congratulate the Directors of the pool in securing the services of such a capable official.

Donald Young, the well-known Glenora hockey player has been signed by the Calgary Tiger Professional Hockey Club, and his Strathmore friends believe he will make the team.

Dr. T. W. Moore gave a most interesting address to the members of the Strathmore Women's Institute in the basement of the United Church, on Wednesday afternoon on the subject "Treatment and Prevention of Communicable Diseases."

Harvey Hansen, of Namaka, was in town last week for medical examination, when it was discovered that he was suffering from being the proud possessor of several fractured ribs. So if Harry appears rather stiff, people will understand it is not a mental ailment, but purely a physical condition.

Frank McKel, who was very ill some months ago, and who has been convalescing at his home all summer, is again fit as a fiddle, and returned on Wednesday to take up his work again at Vancouver.

The Strathmore Dramatic Society have been busy for weeks rehearsing the four act play, "The Minister's Bride," which will be presented in the Memorial Hall on Thursday, November 18. The objective is to raise funds to install electric lighting in the United Church, and the sponsors guarantee that if you do not laugh and enjoy yourself, your money will be refunded. Some of the committee are so busy, they must be pretty sure or no such guarantee would be given. Remember the date, November 18.

It is hoped that there will be a large number of teams from the Rural Schools. Two shields will be contested for each grade, the usual cash prizes. The shields will be awarded to the winning teams in those grades in which there are the most competing teams.

NIGHTINGALE

The F.W.F.A. held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Stodley last Saturday. The roll call for the day was a mimicry of five lines, the poetical efforts of the ladies were humorous. Mrs. Osmund read an entertaining paper on "Sports the Year Round." Mrs. H. W. Taylor read her paper on the "Social Service Work of the Province. Both ladies received a hearty vote of thanks. Arrangements for the coming date were made. It is hoped that more ladies will avail themselves of the opportunity of attending these meetings in the future. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Fraser, on November 13th.

Mrs. Fred Jones left for Carbon on Saturday, where she will join her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pool and Bill Malcolm were Calgary visitors.

This is one of a series of advertisements which will appear in this paper in the first issue in each month from date.

ROCKYFORD

Threshing is now finished and most of the grain hauled, for which purpose the roads have been in fine condition, lately. Talking of roads—what is the matter with the road from Strathmore to Calgary? Several motorists have asked us lately if there is another way to Calgary from Rockyford, than through Strathmore. We should not think that it is in the interest of Strathmore to have people trying to avoid it.

Mr. Harry Clements recently made a short trip to Vancouver on business.

Miss Bernice Schaller is staying at present with her sister, Mrs. Horne, in Calgary.

We are pleased to hear that little Rex Horne is improving after his recent serious illness.

Mr. W. R. Clements visited Calgary on business last week.

On Tuesday, Mrs. A. Barnett, of Strathmore, and Miss E. Sibley, of Calgary, were visitors to Mrs. A. W. Miller.

Miss Annie Day has disposed of her store at Tudor, to Mr. and Mrs. Kilburn.

Why go north to hunt when "Deer talking" can be found at home.

The masquerade dance at Rockyford was a great success. There was a big crowd, some coming from quite a distance, the roads being in perfect condition, and now that business is over people will be having more time to enjoy themselves. The costumes were extremely good and varied, and the judges had a hard time deciding amongst so many of whom to give the prizes. They were, however, most popular in their final decisions. Mr. G. Katterhagen, an Apache, well deserved first prize, an ash tray set, as the best dressed gentleman. The prize for ladies fancy costume, went to Miss Clara Treves in a "Tuscan race" costume, which suited her to perfection. The Bailey and Miss Armstrong, of Carleton, dressed as a pair of old people for which they received a bronze clock and a camera. The Jolly Boys orchestra furnished the music, which was all that could be desired.

She: "Were you ever pinched for going too fast?"
He: "No, but I've often been slapped."

We regret to announce the death of the four day old son of Mr. and Mrs. August Senner, the funeral took place on Thursday.

Mr. Tom Rogers is spending his days with her son, Philip, at Chancellor.

Several local sportsmen have been out after geese lately and in some cases very good bags were made. It is a great pity that many so called sportsmen will shoot at geese wherever they see them, regardless of whether they are in range or not. This is a most inhuman practice, as, although they may be too far off to bring down, some of the pellets are sure to strike and cause much suffering. There are far too many wretched shots, with staves and guns, being left about to do of hunger or wound.

Work on the Rockyford Separate school is progressing apace. Mr. Hirtle, who is in charge of the work, has several Strathmore men, on the job.

Mr. Saar and Mr. Herb McLaughlin, of Strathmore, were visitors to Rockyford on Saturday, looking over conditions here and were favorably impressed by this district.

Miss Helen Henderson entertained twelve friends at a Halloween party. The party was so successful that the guests did not leave until the next day. Sounds quite like old times.

ROCKYFORD UNITED CHURCH NOTES

Rockyford United Church celebrated in a very pleasing way, the Fifth Anniversary of the building of their church, on Sunday and Monday, October 24th and 25th. The Rev. Theo. Powell, of Calgary, Spoke at the occasion. His sermon was interesting, instructive and inspiring. The choir helped in the Sunday evening service by the splendid rendering of two anthems, as well as in leading the worship of praise with the congregation.

On Monday evening a Turkey Supper was served by the Ladies Aid in the Town Hall. Mrs. Myers' Gown numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Henry on the piano, were much appreciated. The male quartette, Messrs L. Ruppel, W. Atton, C. R. Walrod, and S. Ruppel rendered their selections in a very pleasing manner, and the native gathering entered into the spirit of the community singing. Two old ones, a legacy to Mr. Powell, "Other People We Meet". The speaker had an attentive audience and his humor and suggestions were well received.

It was indeed a very pleasant evening and profitable as well. The net proceeds will be about $2000. The Ladies Aid wish to thank everyone for their support and for the donation and help that all was necessary in making the supper and evening program so very successful.

Rev. T. Powell preached on Sunday, October 24th, at Crowfoot, Jarvis and Rockyford.

Rev. A. G. Howe, D.D., of Strathmore, preached at Crowfoot on Sunday morning, October 31st.

Rev. C. G. Hocken, B.A., B.D., will preach on Sunday afternoon, November 7th in the school house at Tudor at 2 o'clock.

The Ladies Aid will hold a shower for the bazaar at Mrs. Gibson's on Wednesday, November 17th. The date for the bazaar is December 2nd.

ROSEBUD

The date? Thanksgiving, November 21st? What? A Thanksgiving dinner with all the fixings. Where? United Church, from 7 to 9, afterwards Miss Green, of Calgary, will entertain. Everybody come and enjoy the treat.

Miss Austin entertained the Grass-wood school pupils at her home Saturday evening, at a masquerade. Norman Weston won first prize, dressed as a Halloween clown.

Don't forget the bazaar and dance at the hall, November 12, given by the Ladies Aid.

Threshing is about completed and we all breathe with a sigh of relief once more.

Bout on Saturday

When it was announced that arrangements had been made to bring Jack Reddick, Canadian Light-heavy weight champion, to Strathmore for his coming bout, upon his return to the Pacific coast, to meet Al. Anderson, of Seattle, Canada, who holds the championship of Alaska, expressions were heard that that was the end of the collection.

Since the announcement was made, however, the Strathmore enthusiasts have made it their business to hold Anderson, over, and water him in his Calgary workouts, and they have returned fully convinced that if Jack Reddick can put him away, that he will be a fine boy, and that the fight will have the pleasure of watching one of the best contests ever put on in Alberta.

Anderson has been working out at Barney Moran's gym in Calgary, and is a big muscular fellow, and fast, willing to mix matters at every opportunity.

Jack Reddick is in fine shape and knows that he has to make a good showing in this contest or be relegated to the also ran class, with no further opportunity of getting in the big money events in the east.

In the welterweights, young Kwaczak, of Drumheller, will meet Kid Murphy, of Calgary, each of whom have been doing some fast work, and are exceedingly ambitious to win and thereby get a chance to go after Basil Daines.

Kid Murphy put up a real scrap at Blackie last week when he met Mahon of Trail, B.C. Those who were present claim it was one of the fastest bouts ever staged in the province. From the sound of the bang until the end, the pair were at it hammer and tongs, and the bout ended in a draw. Every one knows that Mahon is a good one, proving that when Murphy could mix things for ten rounds, that he is a fast one.

An exhibition bout by the famous Buxton Kids, of Calgary, promises to be a very clever piece of work.

In addition, two local bouts have been arranged, but Jim Gunn is keeping the local Dempsey and Tunney under a blanket, until he springs them at the big bout on Saturday. If you don't like a good scrap—keep away, but if you do—get your ticket early.

WORLD WHEAT SHORTAGE

Wheat production on Mother Earth in 1926 is 25,000,000 bushels less than the previous year, according to an official estimate issued by the bureau of statistics. This is the case notwithstanding an increase in production on this continent of nearly forty million bushels.

Taking the production—in all countries other than Canada and the United States—the crop this year will be 44,000,000 bushels less than in 1925.

In North America, while Canada expects a smaller crop, the United States will increase their yield by more than 100,000,000 bushels. The factors seem to point to a keen demand of wheat, according to the report, which reads:

"India is not expected to be able to spare any appreciable quantity of wheat for export and the situation as regards Russia is very uncertain. Last year it was forecast officially that the exports of wheat from the Soviet Republic might exceed 110,000,000 bushels, but from July 1 to December 31, 1925, they were actually only 11,000,000 bushels.

The wheat crop in France is reported considerably below that of 1925, the bulletin includes. The general outlook appears therefore to be for a strong demand for the Canadian crop."

LANGDON

Mrs. Wm. Barron and three children visited with friends in Reddick for a week, attending a wedding while there.

The masquerade dance put on by the Bobcats on Friday, October 29, was a great success. Prizes were won by Mrs. Day, India, for best dressed lady; Muriel Henderson, best original costume; Mrs. M. Deak, best comic; E. Wenzel, best dressed man; Reuben Dahl, best original, and Mr. Patterson, best comic.

Miss Lucile Severn, of Olds, was a guest at the V. E. Dye home for the week end.

While walking on the government road, leading horses, Mr. Ellis Lee was run over by a car, driven by a C.M.

HOW TO SECURE LOWER FIRE RATING

The town council, upon the recommendation of Deputy Mayor Schulze, have placed an order for a new 29 h.p. electric motor, and will locate it in a building at the lake, where the pump is situated on Railway Avenue. When ready for operation, which will be early in November, a very distinct benefit will be provided, inasmuch as the electric power will always be ready for prompt action, which is very important in case of fire; a delay of ten minutes often results in a complete loss.

Chief A. V. McParland and his reorganized staff of fire fighters have placed the equipment at the Fire Hall in the best possible shape.

It is now up to Fred J. Dunn, as an insurance specialist, to bring these very important improvements to the attention of the Fire Underwriters, and if possible have their representative visit and make an inspection, with the object of having them make a detailed report in regard to what further changes or improvements are necessary in order that a new best classification may be obtained.

The premium rates at present are quite a burden for the business men to carry, and every possible change should be made in order to get the lowest possible rating.

This matter not only concerns the merchants, but touches the pocket of every ratepayer.

A general council of war, between the Deputy Mayor, whose electrical training is very valuable, Chief McParland with his fire fighting experience, the merchants who are directly interested in lower premiums, and the insurance men, who are anxious to protect their clients' interests with the Fire Underwriters Association that make the premium rates could not fall in securing a valuable reduction.

INFORMATION AVAILABLE REGARDING SHIPMENT OF ALBERTA COAL

Last week Hon. R. B. Bennett, M.P., made a very complete statement in connection with the efforts that had been made to obtain the costs of shipping Alberta coal to Ontario.

He made the positive statement "that the actual out of pocket expense to the Canadian National Railway for coal, oil, and wages of employees for the special train shipment from Drumheller to Ontario amounted to $1.00 per ton, approximately."

This statement leaves nothing for the use of railway, maintenance, repairs, use of equipment, nor the many other overhead items in operating the rail.

He further stated that the freight expert of the Province of Ontario is of the opinion that the rate of $1.00 per ton CAN be fixed for Alberta coal. Notwithstanding these positive statements, Sir Henry Thornton has persistently refused to consider a lower rate than $9 per ton, and no doubt will continue to stand pat on that rate, unless ordered to lower it by the Dominion Railway Commission.

The matter apparently now rests in the hands of the Hon. Charles Stewart, and strong pressure should be brought to bear upon him, through the Alberta members, and especially at the hands of E. Garland, M.P., the member for Bow Valley, in whose riding many important mines are operated.

Whether Alberta ships coal to Ontario or not, the big overhead operating expenses of the Canadian National Railway will continue to exist.

There appears to have been some hidden influence at work making it exceedingly difficult to get action on coal shipments, which, if eliminated, might change the situation and be the means of retaining in Canada, millions of dollars annually which are yearly expended in the United States. These vast amounts, if spent in Alberta for coal, and for railway operations between Alberta and Ontario, would give business an impetus, together with other favorable conditions now developing that would make Canada one of the most prosperous countries in the world.

It presents a remarkable opportunity, especially for Mr. Garland, to secure action, and the Standard has no reason to doubt that he will do everything within his power to secure early and satisfactory results.

My lawyer, Mr. Lee was quite badly injured, his shoulder being cut and dislocated, and his leg badly hurt. The shock and bruises will disable

SCOUT NOTES

FIRST STRATHMORE TROOP

BOY SCOUTS

The response to the appeal for the discontinued and clothing for the Herald Sunshine Fund has been very good, and as the time for distribution of the assistance is getting close persons who can help in this direction should get what they have available together so the scouts can complete their collections.

It has been suggested that a gymnasium for older boys be run in connection with the Scout Troop, and in order that the organization of this can be undertaken at once, all those who ages of 16 to 20 will be required to with Edwin Cott or Alex Gray. At least 12 young fellows between the Y.M.C.A. in Calgary, and it is also inorder to make it worth while. Accommodation will be required, as well as all the equipment necessary for indoor athletics. The gymnasium will be conducted along the lines of the Y.M.C.A. in Calgary, and it also included that some educational work be included. A certain amount of expense will be entailed and this will be borne for the members of the Club.

HEARD ON THE

STREET

A recommended Jew got into an argument regarding their swimming ability, which ended in them making a wager of $10. The question arises—which won? Answer—They were both drowned.

Harry Thornburn, of the Strathmore
Herald, tells this story on a newspaper:

A man handed in an ad. offering $2500 for a lost dog. A day or two later he called around to see if it was printed. He found only the January and asked when the paper would be out. The reply was:

"There will be no paper published today. Some man left an ad. offering $25 reward for a lost dog, and the whole staff is out looking for the dog."

"Fred J. Dunn is a firm believer in advertising. He knows about a girl who advertised for a husband, and banded him in a short time. The ad.
cost $2, the wedding cost her $6, a total for advertising and the wedding of $8. The husband lived less than a year and left her a life insurance policy for $11,000. And yet there are a lot of fellows sitting around on soap boxes who say it does not pay to advertise."

Young Strathmore Girl: "I want a writing tablet."
Will: Gardner: "Ruled or unruled?"
Young Lady: "Unruled."
After looking over the stock she said: "I want one of those with stripes on it."

A man approached Constable Tate and asked:
"Would you kindly tell me which is the other side of this street?"
"Why, over there, of course," said
the policeman.

"That's funny," muttered the tony
one. "I've just been over there, but Jim Swanson insisted it was this side."

STRATHMORE LUTHERAN

SERVICES

Arrangements have been made to hold services regularly for the Lutherans of Strathmore and vicinity and their friends. The Rev. W. H. Laid, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, Calgary, was visiting in Strathmore district some time ago in response to various requests from local Lutherans. Arrangements were made to have divine services on Sat-day days since it would be impossible for the pastor to be absent from Calgary on Sundays.

GRANDPAPA'S

Grandpa says Smithy has become used to death. When he's been annoyed about Sophy, the tall blonde
with the auburn hair, she has barely returned to Seattle before he has made over a dark, short brunette. Just one continuous chase about the village, searching for a new and pretty face.

"I wish that boy would get some
sense, and get down to business,"
said Lavin in a mournful tone, "and pay attention to the cooking. I haven't had a square meal in ten days—one of these fine days I will get all 'that' up, and tell him where he is heading in said Grandpa, as
he started off to get his own supper.
Smithy describes his latest flame
as follows:

"Her eyes are as blue as a Moon roadster. She has all the grace and poise of a Cheviot, and she seems to float along like a Star Coupe. Her teeth are as even as the front wheels
of a Chrysler, and her neck as slender
as the lines of a Ford. But, oh, boy!
she is faster than an aeroplane and
makes more noise about it."

CARLELAND

Grandpa says Smithy has become used to death. When he's been
annoyed about Sophy, the tall blonde
with the auburn hair, she has barely
returned to Seattle before he has made over a dark, short brunette. Just
one continuous chase about the village, searching for a new and pretty
face.

"I wish that boy would get some
sense, and get down to business,"
said Lavin in a mournful tone, "and
pay attention to the cooking. I haven't had a square meal in ten
days—one of these fine days I will get all 'that' up, and tell him where
he is heading in said Grandpa, as
he started off to get his own supper.
Smithy describes his latest flame
as follows:

"Her eyes are as blue as a Moon
roadster. She has all the grace and poise of a Cheviot, and she seems to float along like a Star Coupe. Her
teeth are as even as the front wheels
of a Chrysler, and her neck as slender
as the lines of a Ford. But, oh, boy!
she is faster than an aeroplane and
makes more noise about it."
